Explore Romanian Cultural Highlights

Unwind on the tree-lined coast of Constanța and explore the highlights of the old town during a walking tour.

Visit the old town to take in some of Constanța's cultural sights on foot. Admire the Capitolina Wolf statue and the statue of Ovid, the 155-foot-high minaret of the Turkish mosque and the Old Town Hall. Pause to admire the Orthodox Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul, built between 1883 and 1885. During World War II, the church was severely damaged and was restored back to its former glory in 1951. After a stroll along the promenade, you will reach the art nouveau Constanța Casino and admire the views over the harbor. After time to linger over the vistas of the Black Sea, you will return to your motor coach and back to your awaiting ship.

Easy - Walking portions are generally over easy surfaces with few steps or inclines. Total time walking or standing is normally not longer than 1.5 hours.
