Discover the Old Town of Osijek and Croatia's Largest River Port

Enjoy a guided walk in Osijek's Old Town and visit the Eltz Manor in Vukovar.

Set off with your guide to explore the baroque treasures and modern sights; Osijek's citadel is home to the best-preserved and largest ensemble of 18th-century baroque buildings in Croatia. Step inside a local church where you will delight in a short performance by the choir. Continue by motor coach to Vukovar; known as "The Hero City," it was heavily destroyed during the Croatian War of Independence. The city's resilient past can be observed during a guided visit to Eltz Manor, the baroque palace first constructed in 1751 and destroyed in 1991 during the Croatian War. It was completely restored in 2011 and now houses the Vukovar City Museum, where you can view a rich and revealing collection of artifacts dating back centuries. After your tour, return to your awaiting ship.
